Crystal Wedding

it be stranger or friend, all find a Fancy Work Club. in its precincts.

more enjoyable for everyone.

sion but great clusters of La France married lif .. toses graced both mantel and tables in the parlors, blending beautifully with the handsome rug that covered the floor, whose dainty he Carr, were quietly married on bunches of roses in shades of pink, challenged the beauty of those, that looked upon them from above. In the drawing room, where the handsome collection of presents was exhibited, the decorations were of carnations, beautiful pink and white carnations, which in their spicy fragrance, graced every conceivable nook But the dining room was the crowning feature of a beautiful floral collection. In the center of the highly polished table, stood a large glass bowl, holding what has been very appropriately called the king of flowers, large chrysauthemums in their ragged beauty, in shades of white, and some pure white with pale vellow fringe, with their long stems, made a magnificent centerpiece for this attractive Vellow chrysanthemums beautified the reception hall, and upper floor where Misses Nell Oreor. dressed in a pretty girlish gown of pink organdie with pink ribbons and Miss Ione Rogers, in pure white organdie with its many tucks, ta remarkably professions for a girl) received the amost cwittemuch ease and were not lack og in their attentions to each.

From a recess in the home hall, diving dinn range or rechielded by a screen frame of monstrone tology, several a Taliamusicians. charmed each one present they were loth to part from roundings so congenial and p their guests in the hall; the host- and coat.

ess wore an elegant violet crepe de chein gown that was quite becom-In response to invitations issued ing. The receiving party was comby Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pemberton, posed of Mr. Frank Miles, Kather. a Halloween party on Tuesday some 175 friends assembled at a crine Cordell, H. Parsons, Miss reception on Saturday evening, at Ethlyn Jackson, O. T. Goodwin, the beautiful home on Arrow St., Miss Alice King, Dr. D. C. Gore hours from 7 to 11, the occasion be- and wife, J. P. Huston and wife, ing the 15th wedding anniversary Judge James Cooney and wife, Mrs. of the host and hostess, who look. Georgie Brunaugh, Cliff Goodwin, ed the pictur, of contentment as they and H. H. Downing and wife. received their guests with true Many handsome cut glass presents Southern hospitality, which at this were received, each expressing home is dealt out to each individual fond wishes for the future. An elalike, who seeks admittance; wheth, egant lamp was a present from the welcome and a word of cheer with. A dainty luncheon served by Loomis consisted of cold turkey. And this reception was really an Potato chips, chicken salad, Arabielegant one. Nothing stiff or for, an punch, sandwiches, coffee and mal about it, which made it the cake. And the night was far spent when the guests took their The rooms were not strictly departure, wishing Mr. and Mrs. speaking, decorated for the occas Pemberton many years of happy Barnds Carr.

Mr. C C. Barnds and Miss Nelthe home of the bride on Benton Ave., Rev. B. T. Wharton performing the ceremony. Only the relatives and a few friends were invit-

The bride was dressed in a pretty white organdic gown, with trimmings of white ribbon, carrying bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional black. After the ceremony, congratulations were offered and retreshments of brick cream and a variety of Irnits were served by Loomis.

The happy young couple will go immediately to housekeeping in the house recently accupied by Nick Stedem, on South Jefferson Ave.

The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations.

Married.

Mr. Charles Lee and Miss Mamie Cunningham, both of Koping, Mowere married Wednesday morning. Nov 1st, 1800 by Wm. D. Bush, Judge of Probate Court.

be becoment of the set M. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Pemberton received help you to save money to buy wood Loomis.

Halloween Party

Mr. and Mrs E. L. Brown gave evening, in honor of their guest Miss Sweet, of Pueblo, that furnished more fun than anything our young people have attended for many months.

The guests were all dressed in sheets and wore pillow cases. The house was lighted with weird lights Jack o'lanterns, etc. Among Literary Society of M. H. S. held the Halloween games provided, was a large pot of cooked potatoes, piping hot placed in the middle of the dining table, and it was reported 'there was gold in the pot.' Then there was a cake walk by the ghosts around the table, after which the search for the tin spoons which had been hidden in different man. places and which were each tied with a ribbon, on which was written the fortune of each, took place. then each ghost helped himself to the pot of potatoes. Miss Annie Hawkins found both the ring and the dime in her share, which is a sign of wealth and marriage. Mar-Then there was a candle contest. with numerous other diversions, each seeming to provide the Priscillamost fun and proved that Mr. and Mrs. Brown understood well how to entertain to the greatest pleasare of the invited.

Hannited," after which every one were entertained. matoes, celery salad, pickles and occasion were indulged in. sandwitches.

Page, Mattie Rea, Fannie Vawter, the merry party broke up. Ethlyne Jackson, Nadine and Mabel Fisher, Messrs Martin Gauldin, Chat and Wm. Fisher, Gus and Theodore Mayer. H. Francis-Judd Parrish.

Delication to product

G mit The participants were il

olives, pickles, crackers, half a broiled chicken, shrimps, aux cucumber, French peas, radishes, new tomatoes, white and brown bread with butter, cold ham lobster chops. roman punch, brick cream, assorted cake, coffee, wafers, salted almonds, cigars, bon-bons.

Spencerian Open Session

On last Friday, the Spencerian an open session, at which the following program was rendered.

Address of Welcome, Mr. Charlie Nicols.

My Impression of the Marshall Street Fair, Miss Stella Crockett

Piano Solo, Miss Mary Dysart. Declamation, Mr. Sterling Red-

Flute and Violin Trio, Messrs. Charles and Leland Viley and Horace Leonard

Recitation, Miss Velma Rand-Piano Solo, Miss Bessie Stuart. Vocal Solo, Miss Betty Mason. Critic. Mr. Noble Brunaugh.

Scene from "Courtship of Miles. Wednesday evening, Nov. 1st. at tin Gauldin found the thimble. Standish," Mr Irl Hynes, Miles Standish, Mr. Kenneth Spencer. John Alden, Miss Floy Tucker, Party at Malta Bend.

The Malta Bend Literary Club. Before lunch was served, the which has some fifteen members. guests all removed their masks, gave a reception on Tuesday evenwhen they had the Grand March ing at the home of Mrs. W. H. to the music of "This House is Hall, when some 35 or 40 guests The reception was rendy for the tempting lunch took the shape of a Halloween parconsisting of cold ham, dressed to- ty and many games suitable for the Refreshments were served con-The following persons were press sisting of pumpkin pie, ginger ent: Misses Frances Napton, An. bread, sweet cider, nuts and popnie Hawkins. Alice King, Pattie corn and the hour was late when

ANOTHER MIGEO LYNCHED

Concluded from page one:

A repe was tied around his neck co. H. Parsons, O. T. Goodwin, and fastened to a limb of the tree. James Denny, Clayton Lamkin and and the horse driven from beneath the negro, which left him dangling in the nir. He was left hanging entitle texts strangled to death Mi north The participants were a second. The vertical viscous travers and the Research Per Porrish, and The vertical viscous travers at the search by language at .i. hards of parties enknown to > accomplished their work, showed Blue points on half shell, celery. their desperate determination.